

Read a book and create a collage! Win amazing prizes!

Choose one of the following collage options, make a collage and then explain your collage.

Collage options:

1. Make a collage of a scene from the book
2. Make a collage representing the hopes and dreams of a character in the book
3. Make a collage of an event in the book
4. Make a collage of a specific place in the book with details (ie. Harry's room in Gryffindor)

Collage Summary: Write at least one paragraph which explains exactly what each image in your collage represents and how it connects to the book.

The collages will be judged in two categories:

- Digital(made with digital images and/or made on the computer)
- Non-digital(using images and words from magazines, newspapers, hand drawn or painted art work, paper etc..)

There will also be winners for different grade levels & the collage has to clearly illustrate that you have read the book.

The contest runs from November 26-January 25.

Hand deliver or send in your collage and written explanation to:
